About This Game

Sword Mans is a physics based sword fighting brawler where you control the sword instead of the swordsman. There is a man holding on to the sword who will flop behind it as it moves. Your goal is to defeat the other players by hitting the man holding onto their sword while defending the man holding on to your sword. This game supports both controllers and mouse and keyboard input.

Versus:

- Fight against your friends or the AI in local multiplayer versus mode. Use stage hazards and power-ups scattered across some of the many stages to get the upper hand in a fight.

Co-op:

Play solo or team up with your friends in one of two cooperative game modes.

- Arena: Fight endless waves of enemies and earn gold which can be used to buy cosmetics.
- Campaign: Play through the campaign chapter by chapter. Chapters will be released periodically and the story will continue with each chapter.

Customize your sword man with a host of different weapons and cosmetics that can be unlocked through game-play. Damage is physics based, meaning heavier weapons will hit harder, but aren't as agile.

Sword Mans features a completely original soundtrack designed to fit the varying stages.

Content will be continually added in periodic updates including new stages, new cosmetics, and new chapters to the campaign.

LOL Amazing game. It's OK for 0,41 cents. The browser game is practically the same.

I just bought it to support the browser game.. No players whatsoever

Only one map

The "fighting" is horrible

Everything about this game was cheaply made and thrown into the dumpster don't waste your pennies. Nice also epic. Very fun game, simple yet fluent controls, AI impressed me, I did not think it would be as good as it was for an indie game. Customization is very nice and is only supposed to get better with updates, if I had to make a request for though it would be one to be able to edit specific player's stats like speed, catching, throwing whatever, also you can change names, numbers, and races, but you cannot change gender, that may seem like a weird complaint because obviously in the NFL and CFL there are no female players but I think it would be pretty cool if they could add that. Overall though this game is worth it, they have two modes currently, quick match and season both are very fun. There is supposed to be much much more to come and already this game is a blast so I recommend it strongly to anybody out there that has always wanted a PC football game that is not looking at spreadsheets and watching the CPU simulate it

I really wanted to like this game. I have a soft spot for games that let you add your own music, but this game didn't do it for me. While the mechanics and controls are mostly spot on, the ones that aren't spot on ruin the game for me. I am mainly talking about the shooting mechanic.

I have no clue why the fire rate is inconsistent, but I guess it's because the game wants to implement as many rhythm mechanics as possible, but out of all the ideas for gameplay elements based on rhythm, why is one of the things they thought of was the firing rate? It gets especially grating with the glass wall game mechanic where most of my deaths come from hitting a glass wall because my gun wouldn't shoot.

One other mechanic I greatly dislike is the difficulty. The game favors short songs while making long songs greatly difficult to go through. The player is given an option of one to five lives no matter what the song is. While going through a one minute song with five lives seems fair, going through a five to ten-minute song is a nightmare since there is a much greater chance the player will fail. And if the player fails, they have to start all over again or choose to continue without increasing the round's score.

Overall, while the game has decent controls and excellent graphics, there are some elements of the game that greatly influence my opinion enough to not recommend it. If you plan to buy this, there are better music player games worth your money. . Really worried about this game. Was so hyped for a tennis game since a long time, but this game is just far from finished, also seems the game is capped at 60 fps (and that for a tennis game that has a fast moving ball).

Although history proves many developers just leave their game after they cashed in. Welcome to the new game era :(.

Although I hope this game ends up like Wreckfest. From a bad game to a top game.

NO FOR NOW.

. With just under 15 minutes of gameplay (time may vary depending on nerves), The Bellows is a great demo that leaves you wanting more. If you're a Vive owner and have been curious as to what a true horror experience would feel like for you, well now's your chance. The atmosphere and sound design is top notch, took me 3 tries to leave the first room because I was just so immersed and terrified, I kept turning it off. Unfortunately the full release does not have the same effect, so the demo is your better choice.. In fact, this does not seem to be the same as the old RTS. The game is boring, ugly and also on Unity. There is no plot, no denouement, faceless enemy, faceless you.. Got to first town after fighting wolves and bees for roughly 3 minutes per enemy- desperately tried to live through the npc design even though everyone was gazing into my soul.

Then I found some ladders. I climbed up them and it led to no where but a rooftop for some reason but I saw other rooftops to go to so I assumed parkour.

Then I landed with too much momentum and slid down a hill into a permanently unescapable ditch.

And yet, the bottom line that I've hit is this game is presented horrendously.

The attempt at adding a combat system only to be a click-fest that somehow SURPASSES minecraft in terms of sheer mediocrity is amazing to me. I can't recommend this right now, not until they play some well crafted titles, learn why they're good and presented in a way that's applaudable.

I bought this for half off and if I was one of you who got it at full price I would have been even more disappointed than I already am. This title has been out for two years in early access; do better developers.. I had high hopes for this game it disappoint!

Was a game. Sorry but this game is weak. Early access for game like that ? 3 levels that are the same,If you get for free have a nice play any other option is a waste of money, go buy yourself a something nice.
